The camp included the fundamentals of scouting, which were taught to the children through interesting games and activity-based learning methods. The students learned discipline, teamwork, cooperation, leadership, and basic scouting skills in an enjoyable and interactive manner.

During the camp, the Rover and Rangers from COE Government College Sanjauli rendered their valuable services for the successful conduct of the camp. They actively assisted in discipline management, camp activities, guidance, and coordination of participants. Their dedication and teamwork contributed greatly to maintaining a smooth and organized environment throughout the camp.
