

Celebration of GST Day

An investment in knowledge pays the best interest. 1st July is celebrated as GST day in India and CA day is also celebrated on the same day.. we, Students from commerce department, Centre of Excellence were invited to the event organised by GST Commissionerate under the guidance of Shri Vivek Gupta Sir (Deputy Commissioner of Central GST). We were warm welcomed over there.

Our honorable cheif guest was Mr. H.B. Negi (Commissioner). The event was started by Mr. Ravinder Pandit who was the Quiz Master over there. Harshanjli & Richa stood first in the quiz, other participants were Aditi, Deepali, Alisha, Pratishtha, . Then came H.B. Negi sir who gave introduction speech on how GST is beneficial to everyone and how it's not a Gabber Singh Tax. Then came the turn of Ruchi & Nidhi who presented the Students version of GST. It was a great presentation and it gave us some career opportunities available through GST like GST practitioner. Then came Nishant who rocked the event with his inspirational poem. After that we were given the certificate and our efforts were appreciated. We all felt the feeling of importance over there. At last Vivek Gupta Sir (Depty Commissioner) Concluded the event. This event was attended by more then 300 people, there were many Chartered Accountants, Police officers, and many traders from Shimla. We had great Fun and we learnt alot there. One thing was clear in our minds that practical knowledge is More important then theory perspective.
