

Report on the Annual Departmental Function

Date: 2nd December 2025

The Department of English, Center of Excellence Govt. College Sanjauli, successfully organized its Annual Departmental Function on December 2, 2025, which served as a dynamic showcase of student talent in creativity, language, and music. The event started with welcoming of the chief guest and pinning up of rosettes to the guests. Prof. Bharti Bhagra, the principal of the college, was the chief guest for the function. Prof. Deepak Kaprate gave the welcome address. The event started with a melodious musical flute piece by Vedansh. Pravesh, Sunidhi and Khushboo did book reviews in an impressive manner, showing in depth understanding of the works. Vedansh and Aarohi sang popular English songs. Vedansh and Kashvi did a musical and dramatic presentation on an excerpt from William Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. Kasak presented a solo act of drama.

There were powerpoint presentations, poetry recitation, riddles, guess the writer game and reel presentations by the students of the department. Divy Kashyap compered the event. The chief guest lauded and praised the talent and performances of the students. The event was coordinated by Dr. Shivani khatri, who also gave the vote of thanks. Prof. Bachan Singh, Prof. Deepak Kaprate and Prof. Himani Saxena and other teachers were also present in the function. There were around 200 students in the audience. It was a successful and enthralling event praised by all.

