

Geographer's Safari

On 13th September 2019 the department of geography of COE Govt. Degree College, Sanjauli organized it's annual fest .The venue of the fest was college auditorium. It was entitled Geographer's Safari : The station for creation. Hon'ble Principal Sir was the chief guest of the event and the function was commenced with the graceful presence of H.O.D of geography deptt. Ms. Bharti Bhagra and many teachers of the college. The annual fest comprised of both academic and cultural competitions. The aim of the fest was to provide stage to each and every student of geography so that they could discover their talents.

The competitions in the academic section were quiz and spot speaking whereas dance drama competition with the theme "Crying Earth" was organized in cultural section. The judges for spot speaking were Prof. Sarita Sarda and Prof. Anupama Chaudary whereas dance drama was judged by Prof. Malvika Narayan and Prof. Gagandeep Garg. On the completion of the event the winners of the event were awarded by chief guest and H.O.D. of the deptt.

The motto of the event was achieved as more than 90% of the student participating faced stage for the first time in college. This function provided opportunity to students to showcase their talent .

Finally, the fest provided a golden chance to all the students to learn management and create wonderful memories for lifetime.