

Documentary Session for History Third Year Students from 23rd December 2020 onwards

On 23rd December 2020, Wednesday in the guidance of Savita Kumari (Assistant Professor, Department History), Pawan Sharma, student of History final year, has made a documentary on the historic state Ratesh of Himachal Pradesh. The documentary is being projected on online mode for History students with an intention to provide them experience of visual documentation and historic research.

The basic purpose of this session is to enhance historic and methodological skill in the students at graduation level.

Click here for: The Video of Documentary Session