Govt. Degree College Sanjauli, was invited to Sharadotsav held at Rashtrapati Niwas, Mashobra. A total of 70 students participated, including 9 final year and 61 first year students. Along with our college, 5–6 schools and one other college also took part in the event.

The event included cultural performances focused on patriotism and Indian traditions. Students performed patriotic songs, dances, and traditional Himachali Nati. A special and powerful performance was delivered by the Jammu Pipe Band, which created an atmosphere of pride and enthusiasm.

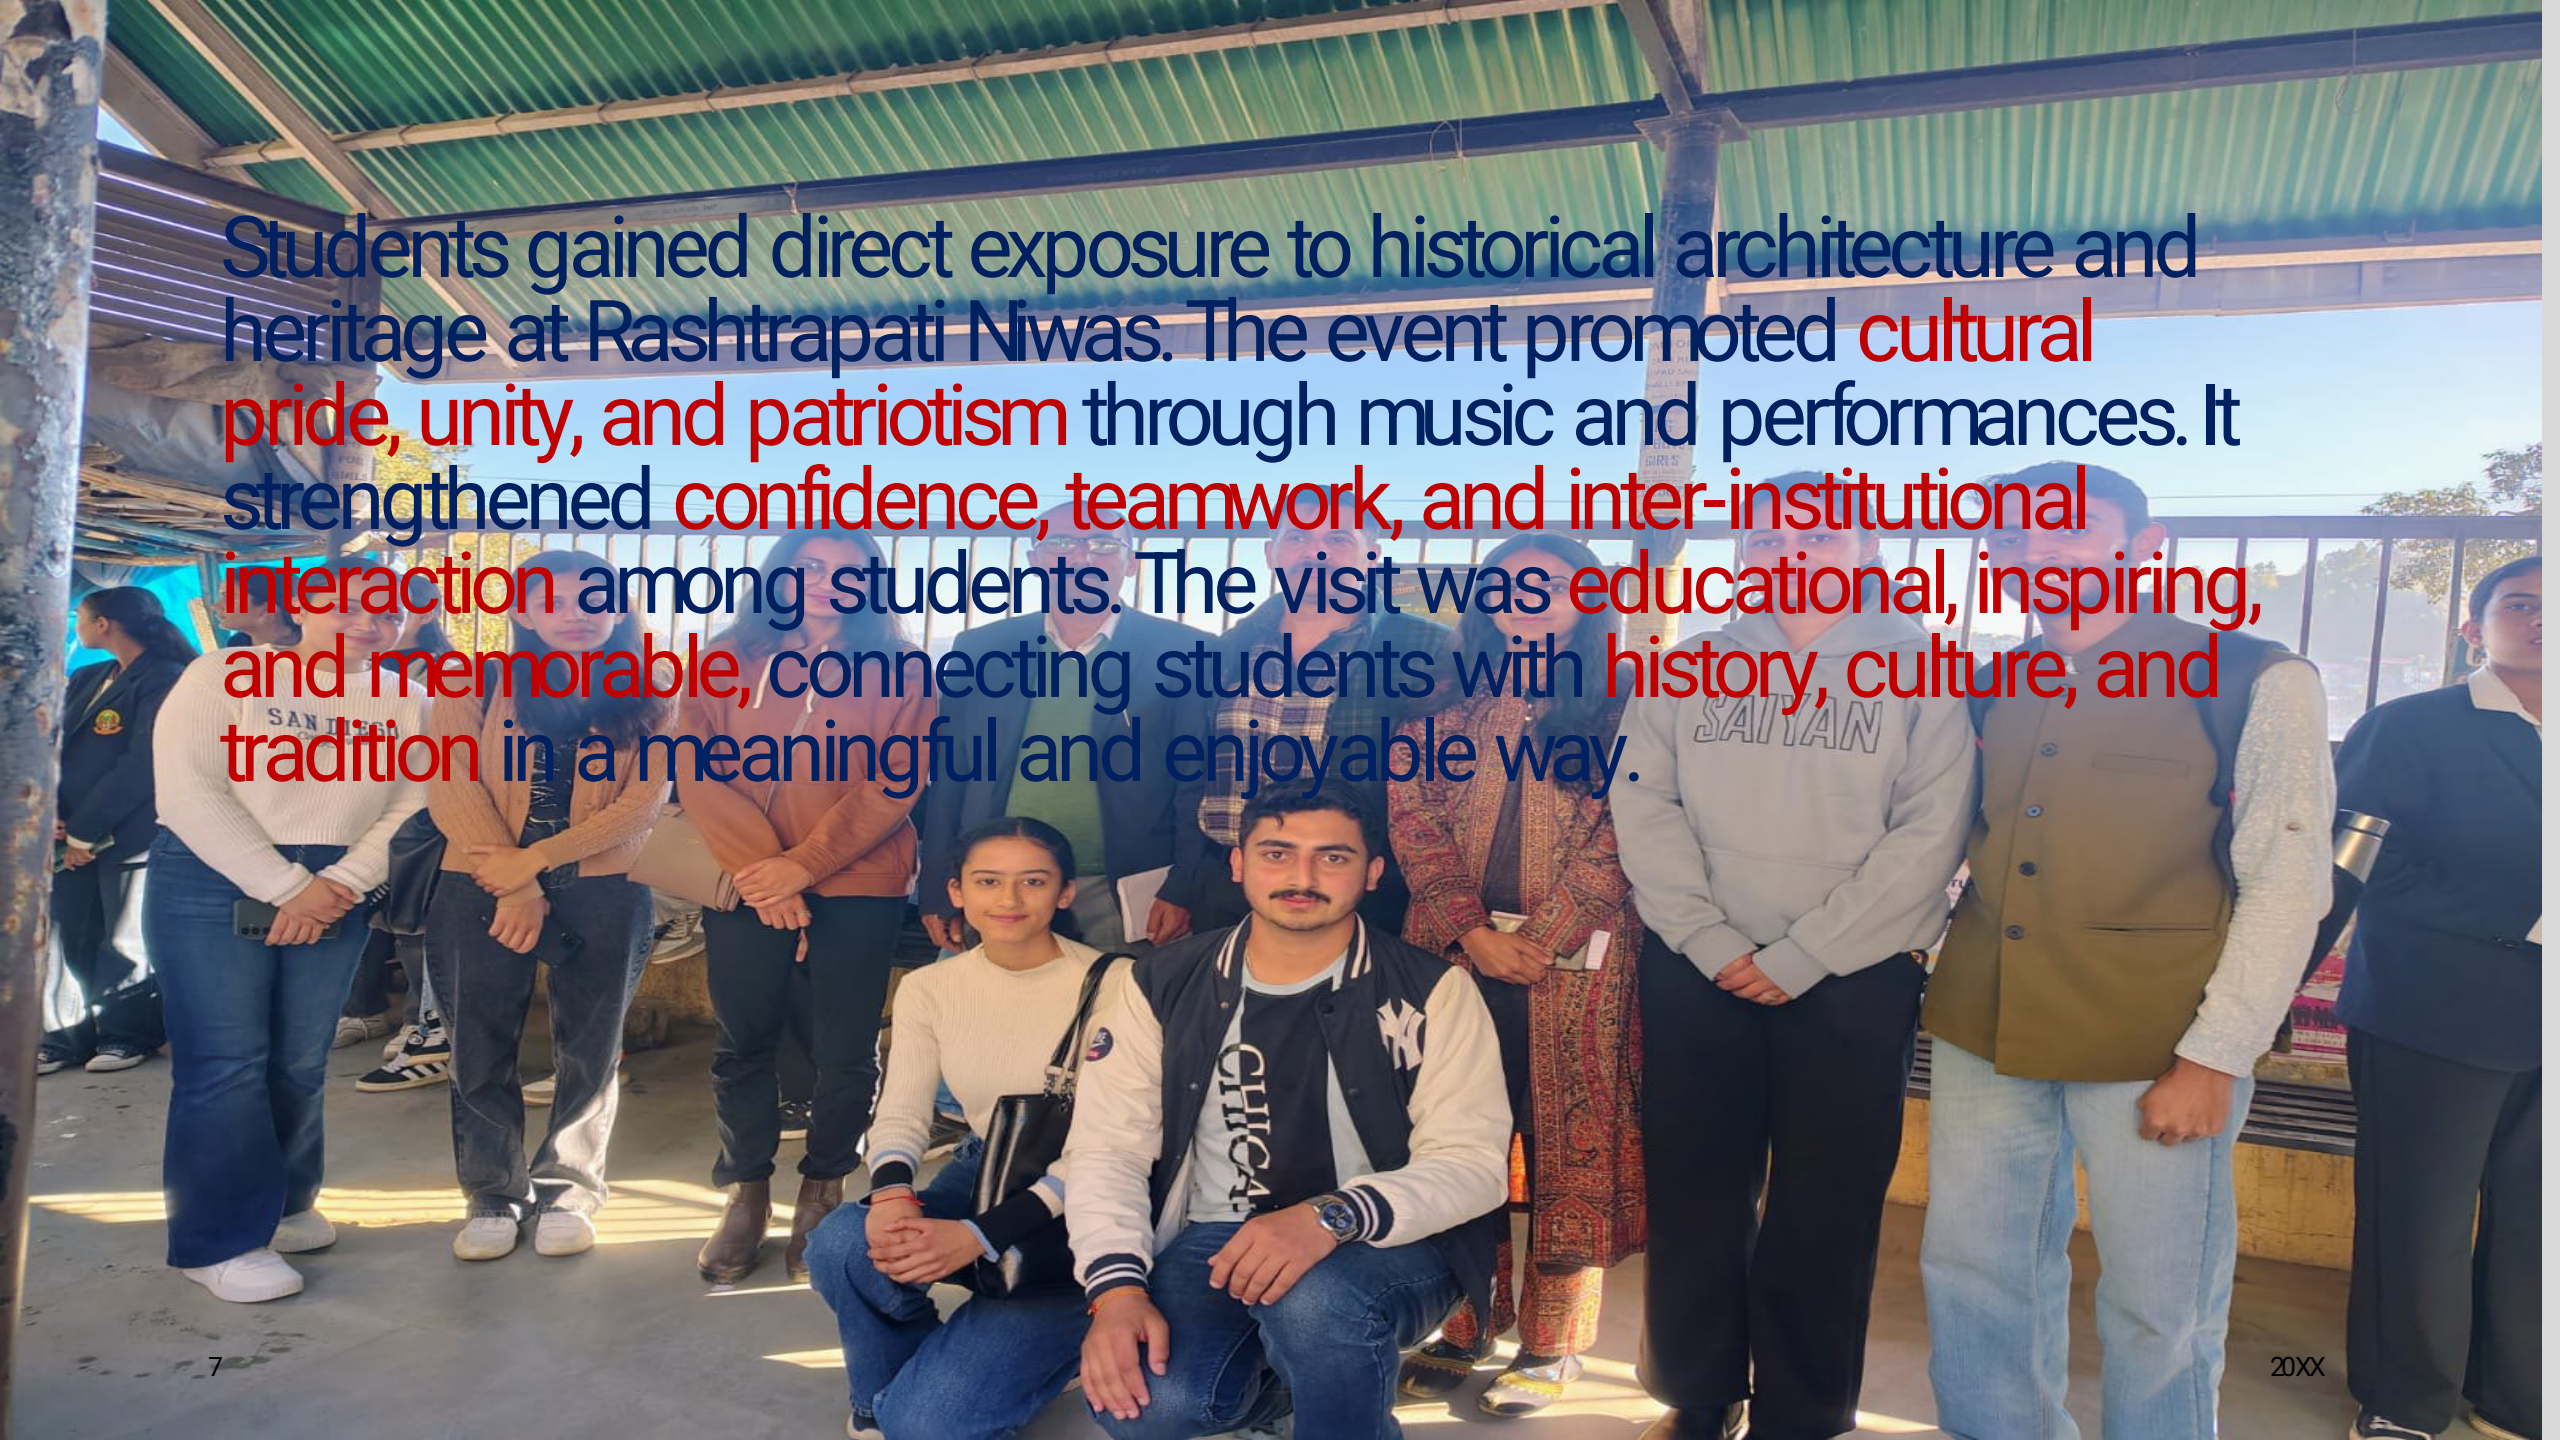

Students were given the opportunity to visit Rashtrapati Niwas, known for its colonial architecture and historical importance . Students of the History Department experienced a real-life view of heritage architecture, enhancing their academic learning beyond textbooks.

The concluding highlight of the event was a live Nati performance by the famous Himachali folk singer Sh. Kuldeep Sharma. His performance filled the atmosphere with energy and joy, and all students, teachers, and participants danced together, celebrating Himachali culture with pride and enthusiasm.

Students gained direct exposure to historical architecture and heritage at Rashtrapati Niwas. The event promoted cultural pride, unity, and patriotism through music and performances. It strengthened confidence, teamwork, and inter-institutional interaction among students. The visit was educational, inspiring, and memorable, connecting students with history, culture, and tradition in a meaningful and enjoyable way.
