'Charity begins at home', which means we should help and care for our own family first, before we start helping other people.

The entire nation is abuzz with the cleanliness drives and campaigns under the impetus of 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan'. We must ensure we become the real participant in this crusade against the dirt and squalor in true spirit. We must start the cleanliness drive from our own home and surroundings. Our zeal and enthusiasm for the cleanliness drive is useless, if our own home and surroundings are unclean, and we are spending hours cleaning the streets in other areas.

The best way to begin this cleanliness drive is your own room, your own cupboard, your own toilet, your own kitchen, your own garbage. Do you keep your own room and surroundings clean? Are you able to maintain the cleanliness around you? If you really do, you feel the satisfaction and contentment of being clean! Now you can lend a helping hand and your expertise in keeping the neighborhood clean! This is how we must go about this cleanliness drive. Remember, only a lit candle can light other unlit candles. Similarly, people who keep themselves clean and their surroundings clean, can help other people to achieve cleanliness objectives.

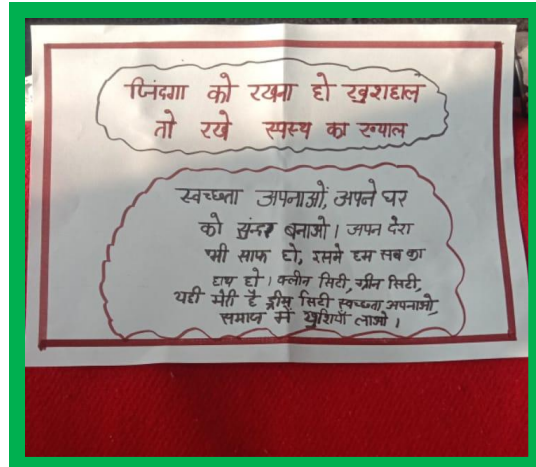

So let the cleanliness begin at your own home! If each one starts maintaining cleanliness at his or her own home, the entire nation will automatically become clean.

Swachh Bharat Mission was launched throughout length and breadth of the country as a national movement. The campaign aims to achieve the vision of a 'Clean India' by 2nd October 2019. By inviting people to participate in the drive, the Swachhta Abhiyan has turned into a National Movement. A sense of responsibility has been evoked among the people through the Clean India Movement. With citizens now becoming active participants in cleanliness activities across the nation, the dream of a 'Clean India' once seen by Mahatma Gandhi has begun to get a shape. Swachh Bharat Abhiyan has become a 'Jan Andolan' receiving tremendous support from the people. Citizens too have turned out in large numbers and pledged for a neat and cleaner India. Taking the broom to sweep the streets, cleaning up the garbage, focussing on sanitation and maintaining a hygienic environment have become a practice after the launch of the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan. People have started to take part and are helping spread the message of 'Cleanliness is next to Godliness.'

Swachta

Cleanliness (swachta) is very important for all living being and a healthy environment. It is very essential to everyone to maintain cleanliness hygiene and sanitation. If we maintain cleanliness it is only possible by focus on water conservation and clean our surrounding environment. It is not only responsibility of sweepers and workers but responsibility of all the citizen to clean our country. We need to maintain proper hygiene and start our homes first after we are done with this we need to reach out to villages and cities and important place like school and hospitals. Staying clean and healthy would not only keep you safe from any diseases but also will help you to keep your mind fresh. With the habit of cleanliness, one's level of concentration increases, which will help him stand out of the rest, and later, this habit of cleanliness will take him ahead in life and help him become a successful and happy man. So we will promote cleanliness amongst all citizens.
