NSS DAY CELEBRATION

Date: 26/09/2025

Introduction

The NSS Day was celebrated on 24th September in our college with great enthusiasm. The program began with a brief introduction about the history and significance of the National Service Scheme, highlighting its motto “Not me but you.” The principal and NSS program officer addressed the students, motivating them to actively participate in all activities.

Objectives:

The primary objectives of the NSS Unit’s participation in the N. S. S Day celebration were:

- To celebrate NSS Day and highlight its importance.
- To create awareness among students about social service and responsibility.
- To encourage volunteers to participate actively in community development programs.
- To promote the spirit of unity, discipline, and selfless service.

About the celebration:

The ceremony instilled a sense of pride and responsibility among the students, reminding them of their duty towards society.

The cultural segment of the celebration showcased vibrant dance performances representing the culture of different districts. Students presented traditional dances from regions such as Kinnaur, Mandi, and Shimla, reflecting the diversity and unity of our state. The colorful costumes and energetic performances captivated the audience and created a festive atmosphere.

A melodious music performance added charm to the event, as the singers entertained the gathering with their soulful voices. Towards the end, a lively jam session brought together all students and volunteers, creating a cheerful and unifying environment where everyone participated with great excitement.

The Principal concluded the program with a motivating speech, appreciating the efforts of the NSS unit and encouraging the volunteers to carry forward the spirit of service and teamwork in their lives. Finally, the celebration ended with refreshments served to all the participants, making the day both enjoyable and memorable.

Overall, the NSS Day celebration successfully conveyed the true spirit of service, cultural pride, and unity among students.

Conclusion:

The NSS Day celebration was not only an occasion to honor the values of the National Service Scheme but also a platform for students to showcase their talents and unity in diversity. The batch ceremony, cultural dances, music, and jam session created an atmosphere of joy and togetherness, while the Principal's inspiring words reminded everyone of the importance of service to society. The event concluded on a positive note with refreshments and left a lasting impression on all participants, reinforcing the true spirit of "Not Me But You."

Acknowledge :

We express our heartfelt gratitude to our respected Principal for his inspiring guidance and support throughout the celebration. We also thank our NSS Programme Officer and teachers for their constant encouragement and cooperation in organizing the event successfully. A special thanks goes to all the NSS volunteers and students whose active participation through performances and discipline made the program lively and memorable. Finally, we acknowledge the
