

An event of Political Science Deptt.

To make students aware about the historical perspective of the democratic set up in ancient India a documentary “Malana– In search of...” 73 mins. Eng Directed by Dr Vivek Mohan was shown to the students of Political science on 23 August 2019 .Malana is an ancient village in the state of Himachal Pradesh and is one of oldest standing democracies of the world. All the students watched the movie with great fervor and enhanced their knowledge about the social structure of Malana based on rituals and conventions. Principal of the college Dr C. B. Mehta , all the senior Professors and faculty members of Political Science department remained present during the event.

