

AN EVENT OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION DEPARTMENT

04TH SEPT.2019

Dr.Vivek Mohan

A movie was shown to the students of Public Administration Departments to make the students aware about the oldest historical set up of ancient India “A Documentary by Dr Vivek Mohan on a village called Malana” on 04.09.2019.

Malana is an ancient village in the state of Himachal Pradesh and is one of oldest standing democracies of the world. All the students watched the movie with great enthusiasm and interest and they asked few questions also from Dr Vivek Mohan and he also clears their doubts. This movie was a great help for the students of administration to enhance their knowledge about the social structure of Malana based on rituals and conventions. And they should understand that how administration works in the olden times. Principal of the college Dr C. B. Mehta, all the senior Professors and faculty members Dr Sarita Sharda and Dr Purnima Thaper of Public Administration department remained present during the event.