OVERVIEW

The Rotaract Club of Government College Sanjauli participated in an insightful webinar organised by the Rotaract Club of SBS Dehradun, Zone 7, in collaboration with Zone 1 of Rotaract District 3080, on 25 October 2026. Titled "Is There Any Conflict Between Morality, Law and Justice?", the session aimed to explore the relationship between legal principles, moral values, and justice in everyday life.

The webinar provided a valuable learning opportunity for Rotaractors of Government College Sanjauli to understand important legal and ethical issues. It encouraged young individuals to reflect on how moral values and laws influence our decisions and responsibilities towards society.

SPEAKER AND KEY DISCUSSION

The session featured Ms. Simran Chauhan, who shared valuable perspectives on the relationship between morality, law, and justice. She encouraged participants to reflect on situations where legal rules and personal moral beliefs may differ.

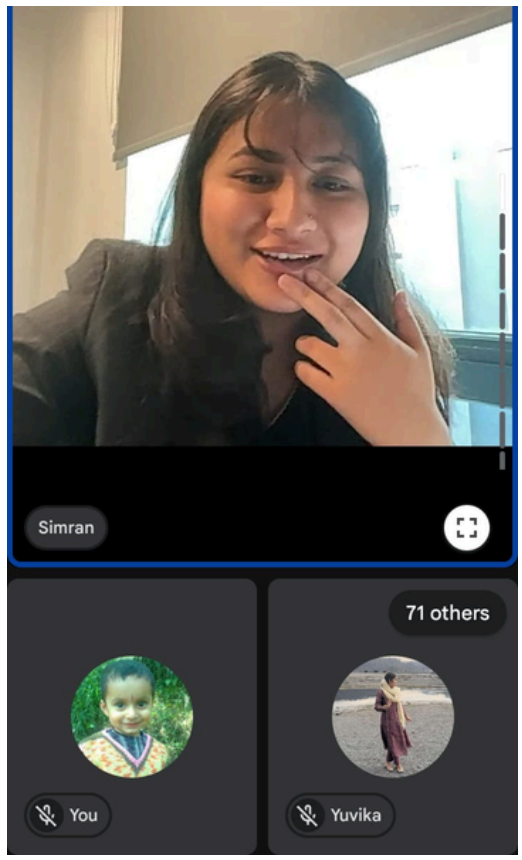

The discussion highlighted the importance of fairness, ethical decision-making, and understanding different perspectives when dealing with real-life situations. The webinar also provided an opportunity for participants to interact in an informal and friendly atmosphere. This made the overall experience more engaging and encouraged open discussion among the participants

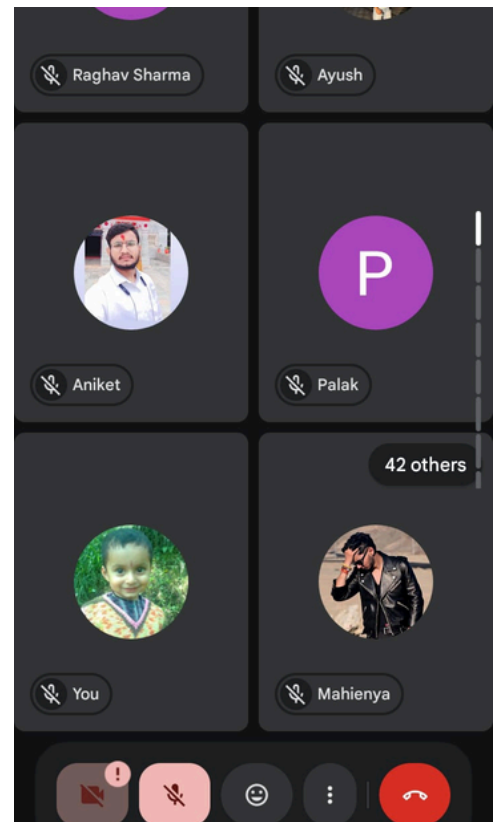

PARTICIPATION, ENGAGEMENT AND IMPACT

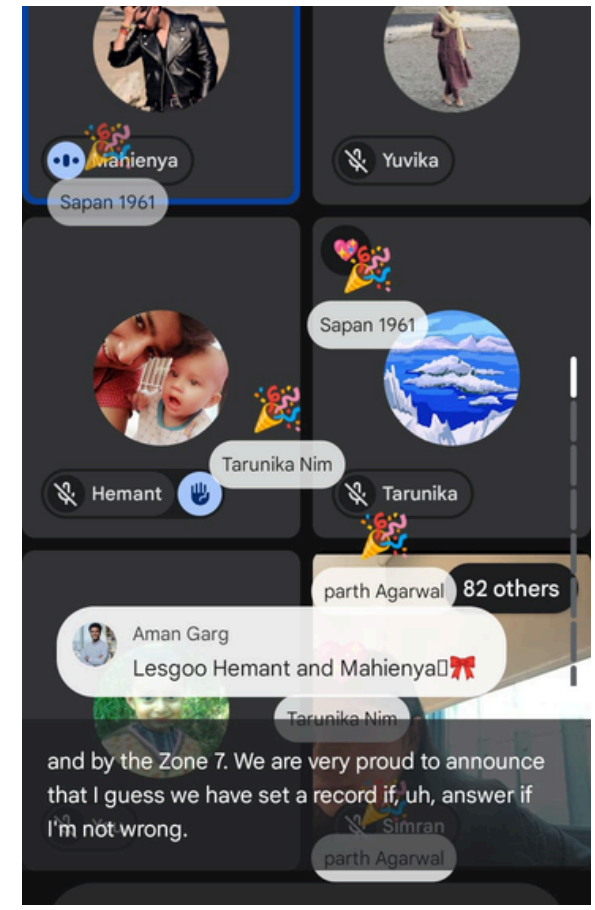

Approximately 100 participants joined the online webinar, marking an encouraging milestone for the collaborating clubs. The session included fun and interactive elements that encouraged participants to exchange ideas and explore different perspectives on legal and ethical issues.
The discussion promoted legal awareness, critical thinking, and the importance of balancing legal obligations with moral values. It also highlighted how fairness, equality, and ethical decision-making contribute to building a more just and responsible society.

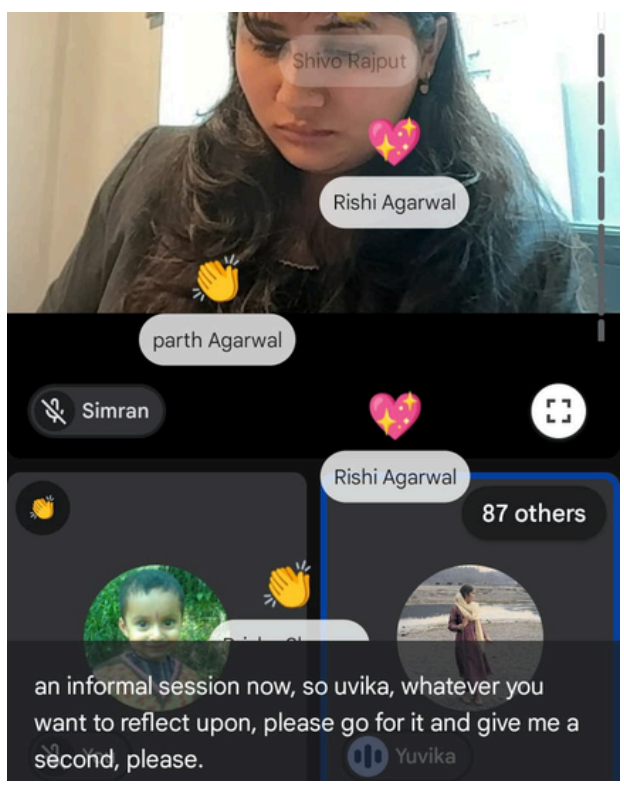

CONCLUSION

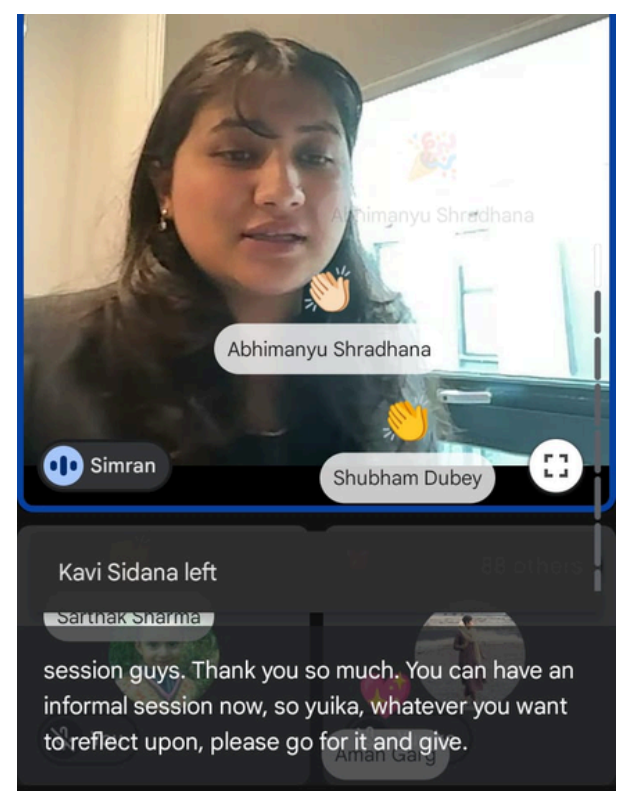

The webinar was an insightful and engaging experience that encouraged participants to look at law, morality, and justice from different perspectives. The participation of the Rotaract Club of Government College Sanjauli reflected its commitment to learning, awareness, and youth development. With approximately 100 beneficiaries, the session successfully highlighted the importance of ethical thinking, fairness, and legal awareness in everyday life. It concluded with a meaningful message that building a just society requires not only respect for the law but also compassion, integrity, and a strong sense of moral responsibility.
