

THEATRE CLUB GOVT. COLLEGE SANJAULI

Email: theatreclubgcsanjauli@gmail.com principalsanjauli@gmail.com

REPORT ON NUKKAD NATAK : SAY NO TO DRUGS, SAY YES TO LIFE!

Theme : Say No to Drugs, Say Yes to Life!

Campaign Drug Awareness Campaign — NSS G.C. Sanjauli

Date : 30th September 2025

Venue : College Campus Ground, Govt. College Sanjauli, Shimla

Chief Guest : Principal Bharti Bhagra

Organised by : Theatre Club, Government College Sanjauli

Event Overview

On 30th September 2025, the Theatre Club of Government College Sanjauli, Shimla, delivered a powerful and deeply moving Nukkad Natak (street play) titled “Say No to Drugs, Say Yes to Life!” on the college campus ground. The performance was part of a broader drug awareness campaign organised under the banner of NSS G.C. Sanjauli. The skit captivated a large gathering of students, faculty, and dignitaries, making a resounding impact on every. The Nukkad Natak presented a gripping and emotionally charged narrative that resonated deeply with the audience. The story revolved around a family torn apart by the devastating consequences of drug abuse, painting a realistic picture of the societal pressures and personal struggles that lead young individuals down a destructive path.

THEATRE CLUB GOVT. COLLEGE SANJAULI

Email: theatreclubgcsanjauli@gmail.com principalsanjauli@gmail.com

S.No. Performer

- 1 Nitesh Thakur
- 2 Vishakha Sharma
- 3 Vaishnavi Shandil
- 4 Akash bodh
- 5 Himanshi
- 6 Ritasha
- 7 Aman

The performance was met with overwhelming appreciation from the entire college. Principal Bharti Bhagra personally commended the Theatre Club artists for their exceptional dedication and the impactful message conveyed through their performance. The faculty members were all praise for the depth and social relevance of the skit, acknowledging the maturity with which sensitive issues such as mental health and addiction were portrayed.

Conclusion

The Nukkad Natak was not merely a performance — it was a powerful social statement. By bringing to life the harsh realities of drug addiction through the medium of street theatre, the club successfully created awareness and ignited a sense of responsibility among the youth. The event stands as a testament to the Theatre Club's commitment to using the performing arts as a tool for social change. The college administration, faculty, and students extend their heartfelt congratulations to all the performers and the organising team for delivering such an impactful and memorable act.

Reported by Harsh