

THEATRE CLUB G.C. SANJAULI

theatreclubgcsanjauli@gmail.com

REPORT ON PERFORMANCE OF TOURISM DAY SKIT

Event: Tourism Day

Theme: “समन्वय”

Venue: Government college Sanjauli

Date: 27th September 2025

On the occasion of Tourism Day, the Theatre Club of our college presented a thoughtful and entertaining skit titled “समन्वय”, which beautifully highlighted the values of cultural unity and harmony in diversity. The performance was warmly received by the audience and added charm to the celebrations.

The skit revolved around the everyday life of an Indian household and their interactions with people from diverse cultural backgrounds. The storyline showcased how mutual respect, acceptance, and togetherness create the spirit of “Unity in Diversity” that truly defines India.

THEATRE CLUB G.C. SANJAULI

theatreclubgcsanjauli@gmail.com

The cast members performed their roles with great dedication and enthusiasm:

- Crystal Thakur as Maa
- Rohini Thakur as Pita Ji
- Akash as Beta
- Rishika as Bengali Bahu
- Vedika as South Indian Padosi
- Palak as Punjabi Neighbour
- Abhishek Sharma as Nepali

The skit was directed and written by Rohini Thakur and Crystal Thakur, who beautifully weaved humor, emotions, and a meaningful message into the act. The performance ended on an inspiring note, emphasizing that despite our linguistic, regional, and cultural differences, we are united as one family under the spirit of Indian tourism and heritage.

Overall, the skit was highly appreciated by the audience and contributed significantly to the celebration of Tourism Day, leaving a lasting impression on everyone present.

REPORTED BY
ABHISHEK SHARMA