During the workshop, students were engaged in various activities such as warm-up exercises, voice modulation techniques, body movement training, improvisation tasks, and short stage performances.

The workshop concluded with an open discussion where students shared their experiences and received valuable feedback from the directors. The Theatre Club expressed gratitude to both the directors for their guidance and to all the participants for making the event successful.

Overall, the workshop proved to be a memorable and enriching experience, motivating students to actively engage in future theatre activities.
